For the purposes of this Policy, the terms and definitions as listed as part of Appendix A apply.

4. Types of Personal Data

The standard personal data processed by Elev8 on the Customer's behalf shall include: First name and Last name; Phone number; Email Address, Address - State, Province, City, ZIP/Postal code, previous job roles, education history and may include other personal data as determined by the Customer and as necessary to provide the Services in specific cases.

5. Data Protection and Privacy

5.1. Privacy Principles

Customer shall ensure that the relevant third parties, including data subjects, have been informed of, and have given their consent to, such use, processing, and transfer as required by all applicable data protection legislation.

In handling Personal Data, Elev8 shall abide by the following key principles:

5.1.1. Fair, Lawful and Transparent Processing

Elev8 shall ensure that Personal Data is processed fairly and lawfully and in a transparent manner, and ensure that the legal grounds for processing of personal information have been clearly identified before processing commences.

In strict specific terms, the collection and processing of personal information must only be permitted on one of the following six grounds listed in art.6 of the GDPR (or Lawful basis) in which the lawfulness of a specific case of processing of Personal Data may be established or as stated in the applicable privacy laws and regulations.

5.1.2. Restricted to the Original Purpose (Purpose Limitation)

Elev8 shall ensure that Personal Data must only be collected, processed, stored, and used for explicit and legitimate business purposes, and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with the purpose for which it was collected.

5.1.3. Limited to the Minimum Necessary (Data Minimization)

Elev8 shall ensure that Personal Data is adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the intended purposes for which they are collected and processed.

5.1.4. Accurate

Elev8 shall ensure that Personal Data is accurate and where necessary, kept up to date, subject to any professional or legal obligations.

5.1.5. Not Retained Longer than Necessary (Storage Limitation)

Elev8 should ensure that Personal Data is not kept for longer than necessary subject always to any professional or legal obligation to retain such Personal Data for prescribed time periods. The Company will hold Personal Data all throughout and as required by the Proposal.

The Company will retain Personal Data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes it was collected for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, tax and reporting requirements but not longer than as per the applicable laws and regulations.

5.1.6. Kept Secure (Integrity and Confidentiality)

Reasonable precautions must be taken to secure Personal Data against accidental or unlawful destruction or loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access. These precautions should include technical, physical and organizational security measures, such as measures to prevent unauthorized access, that are commensurate with the sensitivity of the information and the level of risk associated with the processing of the Personal Data.

5.1.7. Processed in Accordance with the Rights of Data Subjects

Customer and Elev8 must ensure that the rights of natural persons are taken into consideration and adhered to where appropriate and that each of these rights are supported by appropriate procedures that allow the requested action to be taken within specific timescales.

Elev8 will assist the Customer upon Customer’s request when Data Subjects exercise their rights as provided in the table below:

Data Subject Request	Description	Timescale
Right to be Informed	Individuals have the right to be informed about their Personal Data held including the purpose of the processing and the recipients of their Personal Data	Upon collection or within a month
Right of Access	Individuals have the right to request access to their data. This allows them to become aware of Personal Data that is processed and the ability to verify the Personal Data processed.	One Month
Right to Rectification	Individuals have the right to have any inaccurate Personal Data rectified and, taking into account the purposes of the processing, to have any incomplete Personal Data about them completed.	One Month
Right to Erasure	Under certain circumstances, individuals may have the right to request to erasure (or the right to be forgotten) of Personal Data concerning them.	One Month
Right to Restrict Processing	Under certain circumstances, individuals have the right to restrict the processing of their Personal Data.	One Month

Right to Data Portability	Under certain circumstances, individuals have the right to obtain and reuse their Personal Data for their own purposes across different services.	One Month
Right to Object Processing	Under certain circumstances, individuals have the right to object processing, where their Personal Data is processed on certain legal basis (such as legitimate interest).	Upon receipt of objection
Rights in relation to Automated Decision Making and Profiling	Individuals have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing including profiling which produces legal effects on them or significantly affects them.	Upon receipt of objection

5.1.8. Transfers

Elev8 must ensure that transfers of Personal Data to a third-party organization or country, which is to be processed after its transfer, can take place only if specific conditions are complied with as follows:

5.1.8.1. Contracts Involving the Processing of Personal Data

Elev8 will ensure that all business relationships it enters into with any Third Parties that involve the processing of Personal Data must be subject to a documented contract.

5.1.8.2. International Transfers of Personal Data

Within the global operations of Elev8, Personal Data may be transferred outside the country in which it was collected and/ or processed, for legitimate business activities in accordance with the applicable law. In addition, to the extent permissible by applicable law, Elev8 may store and/ or process Personal Data in facilities operated by Third Parties on behalf of Customer outside the country in which the Personal Data was collected and/ or processed.

Where Personal Data is transferred from the EEA to other countries in which applicable laws do not offer the same level of data privacy protection as the EEA states the Parties shall put in place appropriate safeguards in place pursuant to Article 46 of the GDPR and Standard Contractual Clauses shall apply in respect of any transfer of Personal Data. Each Party agrees to execute the Standard Contractual Clauses as issued by the COMMISSION IMPLEMENTING DECISION, dated June 4th 2021 on standard contractual clauses for the transfer of personal data to third countries pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679, upon request of the other Party and further agree that absent of such execution, the terms and conditions of the Standard Contractual Clauses shall in any event apply to any transfer of Personal Data to jurisdiction out of the European Economic Area.

5.1.9. Analytical activities

We may use analytical activities (via technological or other electronic means) to process data for statistical purposes, technical reasons, and evaluation assessments.

This data will help us to deliver content and compile metrics and analytics to provide only to the Customer.

It may also be used to understand, improve, and research features, and services, including when you access our Services from devices such as your work computer or your mobile device.

Any decision affecting data subject rights shall be done with human intervention and such decision shall never be based solely on automated processing.

5.2. Privacy by Design

Elev8 has adopted the principle of privacy by design and will ensure that the definition and planning of all new and significantly changed processes (High Risk) and systems that collect or process Personal Data will be subject to privacy considerations, including the performance of Data Protection Impact Assessment.

The Data Protection Impact Assessment shall include:

- Consideration of how Personal Data will be processed and for what purposes.
- Assessment of whether the proposed processing of Personal Data is both necessary and proportionate to the purposes(s).
- Assessment of the risks to individuals in processing the Personal Data.
- What controls are necessary to address the identified risks and demonstrate compliance with related legislation. (Use of techniques such as encryption, anonymization or pseudo anonymization shall be considered where applicable and appropriate.

5.3. Complaints, Questions and Additional Information

To express a concern, raise a question, make a complaint, or to obtain additional information about the processing of Personal Data by the Company, the concerned individual should contact the Company's Data Protection Officer via the following email address: data-request@elev8me.com. In addition, if for any reason you believe that your rights as data subjects are not respected by the Company, you can file a complaint to your local independent authority.

6. Appendices

6.1. Appendix A – Terms and Definitions

For the purposes of this Policy, the following terms and definitions apply.

Term	Definition
Data Controller	Refers to the organization, which determine the purposes and means of processing of Personal Data. In relation to this Policy, the Customer is the Data Controller.
Data Subject	Refers to an identified or identifiable natural person who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to his or her physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity.
